Issued 2024-05-06

HYPER | ISLAND

COURSE CERTIFICATE

Higher Vocational Education (HVE) in Sustainability Change Leadership

This Course Certificate is issued in accordance with the provisions in Ordinance (2009:130) on Higher Vocational Education.
The HVE course has been provided by Hyper Island.

Son Ngoc Nguyen
19960630-8394

Module*	HVE credits	Grade	Date
Module 1	5	P	2024-03-22
Module 2	10	P	2024-01-08
Module 3	15	P	2023-12-22
Module 4	10	P	2024-02-28
Module 5	15	PWD	2024-03-15

*
1. Introduction and Foundation Week
2. Sustainability Work and the Role of the Change Leader
3. The Business Case for Sustainability
4. Communicating Sustainability and Change
5. Leading in Complexity

55 HVE credits have been achived out of a total of 55 HVE credits.

Karlskrona, 2024-05-06

Cecilia Lindberg
Education Provider Representative

Stockholm • Karlskrona • Singapore • Manchester • New York
HYPER ISLAND
hyperisland.com

 The following grading scale is used in Higher Vocational Education:
NP = No pass (Icke Godkänd), P = Pass (Godkänd) or PWD = Pass with distinction (Väl Godkänd).

Five HVE credits correspond to one week of full-time studies.

Yh Yrkeshögskolan

HYPER | ISLAND

Course Certificate for Higher Vocational Education in Sustainability Change Leadership

The Sustainability Change Leadership Course includes the following course goals:

KNOWLEDGE

- Discuss fundamental concepts, principles, models and theories thatcontribute to the understanding of sustainability, the challenges humanity is facing and the sustainability work that is required.
- Explain the use of tools, frameworks and approaches for sustainability measurement, reporting, development and methods to plan strategically towards sustainability.
- Discuss approaches to problem-solving and decision-making used within sustainability work while keeping ethical considerations in mind.
- Reflect on the role of stakeholders, including governments, businesses, and individuals, in promoting sustainability.
- Discuss how innovation, trends, business and organisation practices and strategies can support society's transition to sustainability.
- Discuss ethical implications of sustainability communication, including issues related to greenwashing, transparency, and accountability, and the ability to communicate in a way that is authentic, honest, and trustworthy.
- Reflect on the cultural, social, and political contexts of sustainability communication, including issues related to power dynamics, privilege, and cultural sensitivity, and the ability to communicate in a way that is respectful and inclusive of diverse perspectives and experiences.
- Reflect on different leadership theories and styles and the principles for leading successful organisational change through change management techniques, approaches and tools.
- Discuss the importance of resilience and the ability to adapt to changing circumstances, deal with uncertainty and complexity, and recover from setbacks or failures when working with sustainability issues.

Initials

Yh Yrkeshögskolan

SKILLS

- Reflect and draw insights and learnings from the tools that support increase openness and trust, self-awareness, group development, leadership skills, and effective communication.
- Design and facilitate effective meetings, processes and projects to reach the desired outcome.
- Analyse and map out complex systems with the use of tools and techniques that supports systems thinking.
- Analyse different strategies and solutions to address sustainability challenges, such as reducing carbon emissions, promoting renewable energy, adopting circular economy principles, amongst others.
- Analyse the impact of the business activities on different areas covering, sustainable production, and consumption, and as well other core business activities to address risks, opportunities and threats when it comes to sustainability aspects.
- Justify the suitability of the implement tool, framework or/and approach to supports the case while discussing the benefits and potential drawbacks that comes with it.
- Develop a sustainability strategy with action plan that aligns with the organisation's values and core business goals and activities to promote a sustainable change.
- Analysing and evaluating different communication strategies for sustainability and change both for internal and external communication while including their effectiveness, strengths, and limitations.
- Apply tools and approaches for impact measurement of sustainability communication campaigns / strategies.
- Develop tailored-made communication strategies/campaigns to fit different stakeholders/target audiences for effective engagement while having strategies to overcome resistance and motivate individuals and organisations to adopt sustainable practices and support the mechanism for change.
- Analyse complex sustainability problems, identify the interdependent parts of a system, and understand the feedback loops, causal relationships, and emergent properties of complex systems.

Initials

SKILLS (CONTINUED)

- Demonstrate critical thinking skills through evaluating the assumptions, evidence, and arguments that underlie sustainability issues, develop hypotheses, and make evidence-based decisions.
- Apply suitable change management techniques from well-used models and methodologies to lead change initiatives effectively within a complex and dynamic environment.
- Implement developed innovative and creative solutions to sustainability problems by applying methods such as design thinking, prototyping, and experimentation or similar.

COMPETENCE

- Continuously analyse your own roles, goals, strengths and areas for improvement and reflect on your personal development towards being an impactful sustainability change leader.
- Justify the identified action plan for sustainability strategy based on research, analysis, and application of sustainable development tools and approaches and risk, potentials and impact.
- Present and communicate complex ideas in a clear and compelling manner to create a common vision of a sustainable future, inspire others to take action and foster collaboration for change.
- Collaborate with diverse backgrounds/stakeholders to identify common goals, create synergies, combine strengths and experiences, and develop innovative and effective solutions to sustainability problems.
- Articulate on one's ethical and moral values related to sustainability while reflecting on personal and social responsibility, and recognise the ethical implications of sustainability decisions.

Initials